Both Tennessee Senators, Marsha Blackburn and Bill Hagerty, also withdrew their objections. Cowards, liars, and traitors!

SUCH a surprise. Not.

Show of hands, anyone who actually thought she was onboard for anything other than her own reelection?

The other GOP were feigning support. They were playing along insuring not enough states would be challenged, And went along with the charade of an "attack on congress' , that they orchestrated to stop the election challenge, so they could claim "oh cus violence, i no longer challenge"

Paul Gosar is a patriot and the model we should all look for in elected officials. No bullshit virtue signaling, no stupid "le trigger the libs" stunts, just someone who stands up and fights for important and key issues.
